

Vehicle Protection Plan (VPP)

Unexpected accidents can cost you time, money, and worry... But not if you sign up for Trailer Fleet Services' Vehicle Protection Plan (VPP), designed specifically for our trailer rental and lease customers. VPP can cut your costs and provide you with protection to reduce your exposure. Best of all, there are no forms or applications to fill out!

What is VPP?

VPP is a collision and specified perils damage waiver that relieves the customer of responsibility for accidental damages to a trailer from:

- Collision
- Specified perils: fire, lightning, theft, explosion, flood, windstorm, hail, earthquake
- Roof damage, Vandalism*

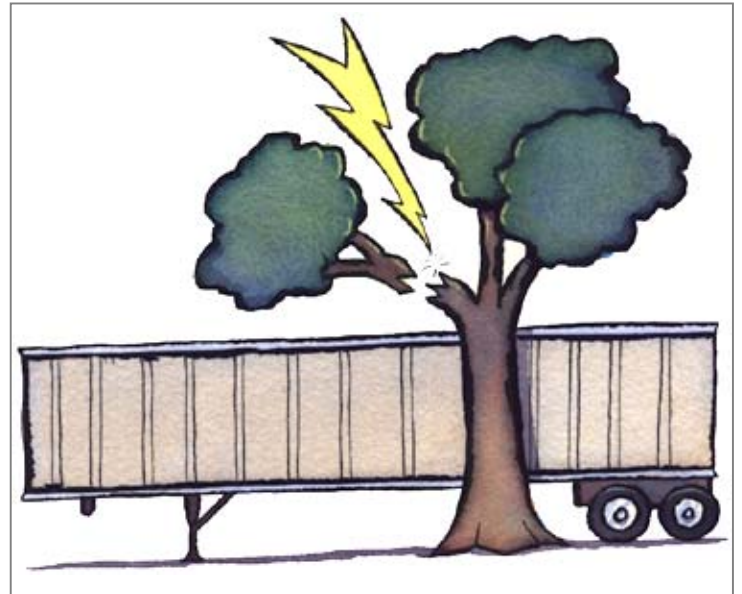

*Unless such loss or damage arises from customer's non-compliance with its obligations under the lease or rental agreement with us...See exclusions on the back of this page.

Many advantages

- > Save money. No documentation fees, low deductibles, no automatic rate increases, and reduced exposure. Pay only for the time you rent.
- > Save time. No reporting, less paperwork, no cancellation fees, no hassle repair.

Enrolling is easy

One call to your Trailer Fleet Services' sales professional can immediately start VPP. After that, VPP can be added automatically to all future rentals or leases. Or, your driver can simply initial the rental/lease agreement where indicated.

Questions and Answers

Q. Are there deductibles or hidden costs?

A. The VPP deductibles are low, and there are no documentation fees.

Q. Do I have to take VPP in order to rent or lease a trailer?

A. No, The selection of VPP is at the sole option of the customer.

Q. How does this plan compare to a blanket insurance policy?

A. First, VPP is a damage waiver program, not insurance coverage. You only need to pay for the time you rent. There is no large advance payment, and no complicated application & approval process.

Q. What if I already have this coverage?

A. VPP may be duplicative of coverage under your existing insurance policies. Check with your carrier.

VPP Exclusions

VPP shall not be applicable to and the following are excluded from the Plan: (a) tire and/or wheel theft unless the trailer is stolen; (b) tire damage unless the tires are damaged as a result of a collision; (c) unlawful operations; (d) trailer upset due to load shift, improper operation or improper balancing and failure to properly secure the cargo contents; (e) floor damage resulting from improper loading or unloading of the trailer and/or forklift usage; (f) damage caused by the hauling of hazardous materials or ultrahazardous materials; (g) trailers sublet without our written consent, or the transfer or assignment of the lease or rental agreement to another party without our written consent; (h) failure to properly maintain equipment during the lease term in accordance with the maintenance provisions of the Master Lease Agreement or Master Lease Services Agreement, whichever shall apply based on selection of maintenance option; (i) unapproved alterations to the trailers by Customer; (j) use of unauthorized (unlicensed or improperly licensed) drivers; (k) unexplained disappearance; or (l) shortage found upon taking inventory.